MEETING / EVENT BRIEFING

DATE: OCTOBER 19, 2016

EVENT: OUTGOING PHONE CALL TO GOVERNOR JACK DALRYMPLE (NORTH DAKOTA)

DRAFTED BY: Casey Himebauch [REDACTED]

Event Overview

North Dakota Governor Jack Dalrymple Requested A Call With Governor Walker To Extend A Personal Thank You.

A group of 43 Wisconsin officers responded to a call for help from the North Dakota Department of Emergency Services. The deputies were to provide assistance at the construction site of the controversial Dakota Access oil pipeline, a 1,200-mile line from North Dakota to Illinois.

(George Hesselberg, "Dane County Sheriff Pulls Deputies Back From North Dakota Pipeline Deployment," Wisconsin State Journal, 10/13/16)

- The state of North Dakota is paying expenses for bringing in law enforcement help at the pipeline construction site. While protesters have been at the site for months, numbers have been steadily increasing, and an estimated 2,000 to 3,000 pipeline opponents are encamped just north of the Standing Rock Sioux Reservation, about 25 miles south of Bismarck. (George Hesselberg, "Dane County Sheriff Pulls Deputies Back From North Dakota Pipeline Deployment," Wisconsin State Journal, 10/13/16)

After Completing Their Assignment, Officers From Various Wisconsin Agencies Were Returning

- Wisconsin Emergency Management, said many of the officers were returning after one week on assignment. The one-week deployment "was the schedule we agreed to, and Dane County had agreed to, Sunday to Sunday," she said. The Wisconsin State Patrol, which sent 17 people, was also ending deployment Sunday and returning Saturday, said Patricia Mayers, DOT spokesperson. Likewise, Rock County's five officers, and two of four sent from St. Croix County. The four from Marathon County are there for two weeks, Getter said. Additional Information Of Note

City Of Madison Alderwoman Rebecca Kemble Arrested

- "Madison Ald. Rebecca Kemble, who had traveled to Morton County, North Dakota, over the weekend to present the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe with a parchment copy of a recent City Council resolution expressing solidarity with those protesting the pipeline" was arrested. (George Hesselberg, "Dane County Sheriff Pulls Deputies Back From North Dakota Pipeline Deployment," Wisconsin State Journal, 10/13/16)
- Kemble on Tuesday said she was acting as a legal observer, recording video of a ceremony featuring prayer, drumming and dancing, when she was grabbed and arrested near the pipeline site. The Morton County Sheriff's Department characterized the incident as a riot, which Kemble disputed. (George Hesselberg, "Dane County Sheriff Pulls Deputies Back From North Dakota Pipeline Deployment," Wisconsin State Journal, 10/13/16)

Wisconsin Deputy Arrested While In North Dakota

- A St. Croix (Wis.) County sheriff's deputy was placed on paid leave this week after an alcohol-related arrest in North Dakota. Ryan D. Fowler was arrested Wednesday on suspicion of being in physical control of a vehicle while under the influence of alcohol, according to a Bismarck police report. Fowler, 35, was one of four St. Croix County deputies sent to North Dakota to assist authorities with protests where the Dakota Access Pipeline is being constructed. ("St. Croix Deputy On Leave After Alcohol Related Arrest In N.D.," Twin Cities Pioneer Press, 10/14/16)
- St. Croix County Sheriff John Shilts confirmed the arrest Friday and said Fowler has been placed on paid administrative leave while the incident is investigated by the department's office of professional standards. Shilts said he has taken Fowler off the department's K-9 unit. Fowler joined the unit in 2015. ("St. Croix Deputy On Leave After Alcohol Related Arrest In N.D.," Twin Cities Pioneer Press, 10/14/16)
