Major,

The [REDACTED] is ready for action!

It has [REDACTED]. It has new [REDACTED]

I have the keys.

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] - As soon as we get the new [REDACTED], we'll load them in the [REDACTED] and it will be ready for you to take.

All - I am awaiting a call from Sheriff Laney (Incident Commander in ND) this afternoon to confirm our deployment dates. It will either be this Saturday, or the following Saturday. There is a meeting with the oil company to discuss when they will be conducting the last phase of the construction at this site. They believe the protest activity will increase around this project. They want us to be there for this project, and the company will advise today if will kickoff on the 24th or the 31st. When I have this confirmed, I will send out the formal orders.

Thanks again for your availability and flexibility.

Keith

Squad Members Responding to ND,

Thanks [REDACTED] for putting the list of equip. I was working on getting the [REDACTED] from Ramsey; [REDACTED] said he will pick them up. I will get some kind of roster together to list all equipment and who's got it and then what equipment will be left for the second group where at that point we can sign that equipment over to the next group.

You guys are going to be pretty loaded down, but you can leave stuff in cars if you do not need it.

[REDACTED] please do grab [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] to take to [REDACTED]. All of [REDACTED] stuff should have been turned in to Lt. Ramsey. [REDACTED], please grab the [REDACTED] from him. Please just make sure you maintain accountability on all this stuff so nothing gets lost in all the shuffling. If a second group of us end up going, we will plan to get the [REDACTED] with all the [REDACTED] from you.

A [REDACTED] is being prepped for [REDACTED] to drive from Cheyenne with the [REDACTED], etc. Everyone else will be in their cars. We have committed to taking all the items listed, plus your standard gear [REDACTED].

Guys,

Looking at the current roster and where equipment is and who has it. It looks like we should have the following to take with us to North Dakota. This is what I show, please let me know if this is correct or not.

[REDACTED]

If this is correct we may want to get another [REDACTED] (currently carried by [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], and try to get one of the [REDACTED] (currently carried by [REDACTED]

Captains, your thoughts? Guys please respond to make sure you have the above equipment and also if you have additional thoughts.

Thanks

Hey Gents,

Remember to bring you [REDACTED] if we are required to be out longer than our [REDACTED] will last, and extra or spare key for your patrol car.

I have the old [REDACTED] that I will bring.

If we are required to use our cars while in ND and teamed up with someone it would be great idea that each trooper would have ability to access the particular patrol car you might be using. When we know more we can remind each other of other items that might be needed like bedding, ie.. sleeping bags or whatever else might be required.
